

Dixie Fried

On the outskirts of town, there's a little night spot, Dan dropped in about five o'clock Took off his jacket, said "The night is short", he reached in his pocket and he flashed a quart
He hollered, "Rave on, children, I'm with you!
Rave on, cats", he cried
"It's almost dawn, the cops are gone, let's all get Dixie fried"

Well, Dan got happy and he started raving, he pulled out a razor, but he wasn't shaving
And all the cats knew to jump and hop,
'cause he was born and raised in a butcher shop
He hollered, "Rave on, children, I'm with you!
Rave on, cats", he cried
"It's almost dawn, the cops are gone,
let's all get Dixie fried"

Well, the cops heard Dan when he started to shout, they all ran in to see what it was about
And I heard him holler as they led him away, he turned his head, and this is what he had to say
He hollered, "Rave on, children, I'm with you!
Rave on, cats", he cried
"It's almost dawn, the cops are gone,
let's all get Dixie fried"

Now, Dan was the bravest man that we ever saw, he let us all know he wasn't scared of the law
The black dog barked, but the boy didn't flinch, he said "It ain't my fault, hon, that I been pinched"
He hollered, "Rave on, children, I'm with you!
Rave on, cats", he cried
"It's almost dawn, the cops are gone,
let's all get Dixie fried"

"Yeah, it's almost dawn, the cops ain't gone, and I've been Dixie fried"
